

Title	Singing Lip Synch
Brief description of clip	A video produced by young children of different ages during a recreational activity in Italian and English. The task was simply to listen and sing along with songs but actually this practice can be used in various ways within the language classroom.
Difficulty rating of production (easy/intermediate/complex)	Easy. Done by the students themselves using and i-pad, i-phone and other compatible android devices.
Recommended CEFR level	A1+
Technical details	Selfie Video realised by the app Dubsmash through i-pad and merged using the App Dubsmerge. The songs were chosen from the Dubsmash sounds database but it is also possible to upload own songs /sounds using the App Dubshmesh dubloader.
Suggestions (preparation/pre and post activities)	The students can work in groups and upload/choose the songs they like. The teacher can provide additional work on the songs texts, on the meaning or the bio of the singer(s). The final result is that the students can have fun singing the songs while doing a lip synch video. This will benefit motivation, memorization of words and pronunciation.
Ideas for application in different contexts	Lip Synch dubbing videos is a funny and useful device for students 10 -13 years old and can be exploited in different ways for language teaching, either using sounds from the existing Dubsmash sound database or creating new ones. Learning through Dubsmash can be focused on various language learning aspects, especially before Dubbing: Listening comprehension (i.e. listening to short extracts of movies, songs, speeches) before shooting the Lip Synch videos Sound and word production Cultural and intercultural aspects Listening and production of specific grammatical structures
