

example title	Situated performance
brief description of clip	Created by beginner students of Mandarin in Higher Education, this role play scenario is performed in a location that is appropriate to the content, helping increase the authenticity of the task.
Difficulty rating (easy/intermediate/complex)	easy technical details	Recorded on their own mobile devices, the students edited the video and submitted as part of an assignment. The finished resource is shared with others in the group for revision and preparation of the oral exam.
Suggestions (preparation/pre and post activities)	In class, key expressions for situations as identified and practised. Students choose a situation to develop, script and perform. They prepare appropriate visual aids. Once recorded, the clips can be played back in class (audio only) for others to identify the situation that is covered.
Ideas for application in different contexts	You can use video or audio recordings for introducing places (in the library/in the street/at a party) and discussion about the nature of language that is appropriate in different places. A series of images can be used illustrating places, students order the images as they listen to the recordings.
Useful links	Making a phone call in Chinese Making a video on an android phone to upload to YouTube Making a YouTube video 5 tips